- (4) The Court shall, after a hearing as contemplated in subsection (2) of this section, issue a protection order in the prescribed form if it finds, on a balance of probabilities, that the respondent has committed, is committing or that there is an imminent likelihood that he may commit an act of domestic violence.
- (5) Upon the issuing of a protection order, the Registrar of the court shall, in the prescribed manner cause:-
- (a) The original of such order to be served on the respondent; and
 - (b) A certified copy of such order, and the original warrant of arrest contemplated in section 36(1) to be served on the complainant.
- (6) The Registrar of the Court shall, in the prescribed manner, forward certified copies of any protection order and of the warrant of arrest contemplated in section 36(1) (a) to the police station of the complainant's choice.
- (7) Subject to the provisions of section 34(7) of this Law, a protection order issued under this section remains in force until it is set aside, and the execution of such order shall not automatically be suspended upon the filing of an appeal.

Court's powers in respect of protection order

34(1) The Court may, by means of a protection order referred to in section 32 or 33 of this Law prohibit the respondent from:-

- (a) committing any act of domestic violence;
 - (b) enlisting the help of another person to commit any such act;
 - (c) entering a shared household provided that the court may impose this prohibition only if it appears to be in the best interests of the complainant;
 - (d) entering the complainant's resident;
 - (e) entering the complainant's place of employment;
 - (f) Preventing the complainant from entering or remaining in the shared household or a specified part of the shared household.
 - (g) alienating or disposing the shared household or encumbering same
 - (h) renouncing his or her rights in the shared household except in favour of the complainant; or
 - (i) Committing any other act as specified in the protection order.
- (2) The court may impose any additional condition, which it deems reasonably necessary to protect and provide for the safety, health or wellbeing of the complainant, including an order:-
- (a) To seize any arm or dangerous weapon in the possession or under the control of the respondent.
 - (b) That a police officer shall accompany the complainant to a specified place to assist with arrangements regarding the collection of personal property;
 - (c) Directing the respondent to secure alternative accommodation for the complainant;
 - (d) order a temporal relocation to any safe place as may be deem fit in the interest of the complainant; or
 - (e) Approve a mediation channel upon submission by the complainant.
- (3) In ordering a prohibition under subsection (1) (c) of this section, the court may impose on the respondent obligations as to the discharge of rent or mortgage payments having regard to the financial needs and resources of the complainant and the respondent.
- (4) The Court may order the respondent to pay emergency monetary relief having regard to the financial needs and resources of the complainant and the respondent, and such order has the effect of a civil judgment of a court.

(5) The Court may issue any directive to ensure that complainant's physical address is not disclosed in any manner, which may endanger the safety, health or wellbeing of the complainant.

(6) If the court is satisfied, that it is in the best interests of any child, it may:-

- (a) Refuse the respondent contact with such child; or
- (b) Order contact with such child on such conditions as it may consider appropriate.

(7) The Court may not refuse to issue a protection order or impose any condition or make any order which it is competent to impose or make under this section, merely on the grounds that other legal remedies are available to the complainant.

(8) If the Court is of the opinion that any provision of a protection order deals with a matter that should, in the interests of justice be dealt with further under any other relevant Law, the court shall order that such a provision shall be in force for such limited period as the court determines, in order to afford the party concerned the opportunity to seek appropriate relief under such Law.

Powers of Police

35(1) A police officer, at the scene of an incident of violence or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible or to whom a report of violence has been made, shall have the duty of:-

- (a) Providing or arranging transportation for the victim to the nearest hospital or medical facility for treatment of injuries where such treatment is needed.
- (b) Explaining to the victim his or her rights to protection against violence and remedies available in terms of this Law;
- (c) explaining to the victim that he or she has the right to lodge criminal complaint in addition to any remedy provided under this Law; and
- (d) Accompanying the victim to victim's residence to collect personal belongings.

(2) A police officer may without an order from the Court or a warrant of arrest, arrest any person whom:-

- (a) He or she suspects upon reasonable grounds to have committed any of the offences under Part II of this Law; and
- (b) A complaint has been made for having committed any of the offences under part II of this Law.

(3) A police officer in carrying out his or her duties under this Law shall have the power to:-

- (a) remove or supervise the removal of a person excluded from a shared residence where the court has issued such an order under this Law:-
- (b) remove or supervise the removal of any dangerous weapon used in order to commit an act of violence as contemplated in this Law;
- (c) Collect and store fingerprints including DNA of accused and convicted offenders; and
- (d) Perform any other act considered necessary in order to ensure the safety and well-being of the complainant.

Warranty of arrest upon issuing of protection order

36(1) whenever a court issues a protection order, the court shall make an order:-

- (a) Authorizing the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the respondent, in the prescribed form; and
- (b) Suspending the execution of such warrant subject to compliance with any prohibition, condition, obligation or order imposed under this Law.

(2) The warrant referred to in subsection (1) (a) of this section remains in force unless the protection order is set aside, or is cancelled after execution.

(3) The Registrar of the Court shall issue the complainant with a second or further warrant of arrest, if the complainant files an affidavit in the prescribed form in which it is stated that such warrant is required for her or his protection and that the existing warrant of arrest has been:-

- (a) executed or cancelled; or
- (b) Lost or destroyed

(4) A complainant may hand the warrant of arrest together with an affidavit in the prescribed form, where it is stated that the respondent has contravened any prohibition, condition, obligation or order contained in a protection order, to any police officer.

(5) If it appears to the police officer concerned that, subject to subsection (4) there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the complaint may suffer imminent harm as a result of the alleged breach of the protection order by the respondent, the police officer shall forthwith arrest the respondent for allegedly committing the offence referred to in part II of this Law.

(6) If the police officer concerned is of the opinion that there are insufficient grounds for arresting the respondent under subsection (5), he or she shall hand a written notice to the respondent which:-

- (a) specifies the name, the residential address and the occupation or status of the respondent;
- (b) calls upon the respondent to appear before a court, on the date and at the time specified in the notice, on a charge of committing the offence referred to in section 35(1); and
- (c) Contains a certificate signed by the police officer concerned to the effect that he or she handed the original notice to the respondent and that he or she explained the importance thereof to the respondent.

(7) The police officer shall forward a duplicate original of a notice referred to in subsection (6) to the Registrar of the court concerned, and the mere production in the court of such a duplicate original shall be a prime facie proof that the original was handed to the respondent specified therein.

(8) Whenever a warrant of arrest is handed to a police officer under subsection (1) (a) of this section, the police officer shall inform the complainant of his or her right to simultaneously lay a criminal charge against the respondent, if applicable, and explain to the complainant how to lay such a charge.

Variation or setting aside of protection order

37(1) A complainant or a respondent may, upon written notice to the other party and the court concerned, apply for the variation or setting aside of a protection order referred to in section 33 in the prescribed manner.

(2) If the Court is satisfied that a good cause has been shown for the variation or setting aside of the protection order, it may issue an order to this effect, provided that the Court shall not grant such an application to the complainant unless it is satisfied that the application is made freely and voluntarily.

(3) The Registrar of the Court shall forward a notice as prescribed to the complainant and the respondent if the protection order is varied or set aside as contemplated in subsection (1) of this section.

Discharge

38. Where a protection order has been made, any of the following persons may apply to have it discharge.

- (1) The person who was the applicant for the order; or
- (2) The person who was the respondent to the application for the order and the Court, upon hearing any such application, shall make such order, as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Offences relating to protection order
